How to use Your Dream, Your Team

Helping youth with disabilities make progress along their career journey
Who is the Your Dream, Your Team website for?

Your Dream, Your Team is a website that helps youth with disabilities improve career outcomes, as well as the organizations that support them.
Who is the website for?

- Job Seekers
- Parents, Guardians or Caregivers
- School Professionals
- Community-Based Organizations (CBOs)
- Businesses
Job Seekers

There are four ways to start exploring Your Dream, Your Team.

• Explore the Job Seeker's Journey to find resources from Career Exploration to Career Growth. Make sure to check out the tools and forms.

• Learn about how an IRT can support you throughout every stage of your professional journey.

• Discover resources that are specifically organized for youth with disabilities.

• Read through different success stories to inspire you.
Parents, Guardians, or Caregivers

There are three ways to start exploring Your Dream, Your Team:

- Discover resources that are designed to help parents, guardians, and caretakers support youth with disabilities.

- Learn about an IRT and how it can help youth with disabilities in your life.

- Visit the Other Information page to learn more about important legislation and research.
School Professionals

There are two ways to start exploring Your Dream, Your Team:

• Discover resources that are designed to support school professionals who help guide youth with disabilities to find employment.

• Learn about the IRT process and how it can help youth with disabilities that you support.
Community-Based Organizations

There are three ways to start exploring Your Dream, Your Team:

• Discover resources that are designed to support community-based organizations (CBOs) who help job seekers with disabilities find employment.

• Learn about the IRT process and specific promising practices specific to workforce CBOs.

• Visit the Sustainability page to learn recommendations on how to sustain the IRT.
Businesses

There are three ways to start exploring Your Dream, Your Team:

• Discover resources that are designed to support businesses embrace employing youth with disabilities.

• Learn about the IRT process and specific promising practices specific to businesses.

• Visit the Sustainability page to learn recommendations on how to sustain the IRT.